Elijah and Patsy Richardson of TN & MS

Elijah Richardson (1783 TN - 1865-1870 MS) may have been born in Greene Co, TN, where there were several Richardson families in 1782, including James: John; William; and Abel. However, TN records before 1830 are few and fragmented; and there could be Richardson families, unrecorded, in several places. One possibly significant marriage was that of James Richardson to Annas Wilson in Greene Co on 3 Sep 1782. Elijah named his only known son James W., and the meaning of the W. is not now known, though it has been assumed to be Wesley.

About 1804 in TN, Elijah md Patsy Guyon (or Guion) (1780/1790 ? - 1840/1850 Smith Co, MS) by family tradition a brother to Willie Guyon who had to leave TN because of some trouble he had there. Willie is said to have gone to LA. Parents of Willie and Patsy are not known. The spelling of the name in NC and TN is sometimes Guyon, sometimes Guion, and sometimes Guin. It was definitely not Gwinn, The name has a French sound, and the family could have been Huguenot in origin.

No record has been found for Elijah Richardson in the War of 1812. It seems probable that he was still in TN until after 1814. In 1820 there were several Richardson families in St Helena Parish, LA, just south of Pike Co, MS, including George, Samuel, Elijah, and Widow Richardson. Elijah Richardson was next to James Guin. Elijah's hh showed 110010-22010, and the number of females coincides with those of Elijah and Patsy. One of their ch, Mary (Richardson) Lard, in 1850 showed her state of birth to be LA. It seems probable that Elijah and Patsy migrated to LA with other Richardson families, but moved into MS about 1820, where he showed up, not on the census, but on a tax list for Lawrence Co.

The known ch of Elijah and Patsy included one son and five daus. If the 1820 census information for St Helena parish is correct and for this Elijah, there was a second son. Ch:

1. James W. Sr., (1805 TN - 1852 Smith Co, MS) about 1827/28 md Martha Price, dau of Joseph and Celia Price, and lived on Bogue Chitto River until the whole of Elijah's family moved to Scott Co about 1838. James W. and Martha had Elijah; Thomas J.; William Mack; James W.; Martha Jane; John; Martin V. B.; Frank; Joseph; and Mary. Some of the children settled in Smith and Scott counties, but others lived in or near Lincoln Co. Thomas J. went to LA where he was a Baptist minister in Winn and Ouachita Parishes.

✓ 2. Susan (1811 TN - not found 1870) md Jesse Laird of SC & MS as his second wife. Their ch were Polly; Elijah; Josiah; Martha; John; Rebecca; Harmon B.; Sarah; and Singleton. They lived in Smith Co in 1850 and 1860. Jesse Laird and his first wife from SC had two sons named Abraham and Tom. Abraham md Susan's younger sister Rachel Richardson. Tom md Susan Parkman, dau of Ed & Phoebe Parkman, and grand-dau of Elijah Richardson.

Elijah & Patsy Richardson, p 2

3. Rebecca (1814 TN- not found 1870) in Dec 1832 in Franklin Co, MS, md Hiram Waller. They lived in Scott Co, and ch incl Rachel; Leah; Martha; Zachariah; Mary Ann; Elizabeth (poss. "Betty"); Samuel; Lucretia ("Creda"); Palestine (or Celestin); and Jane. Son Zachariah Waller had a family in Scott Co in 1870 in Beat 4.

✓ 4. Phebe (1815 MS - after 1870, prob. Scott Co) was on license to marry Edmonson Parkman as of 10 Mar 1837 in Lawrence Co. The Parkman ch incl Sue; Thomas Marion; Edwin; and Martha Ann. Ed Parkman was not shown after 1850. In 1870, a child named Letha (1868 MS) was with Phebe.

✓ 5. Mary "Polly" (1820 MS or LA - not found 1870) md Timothy Laird in 1835 in Franklin Co. They may have lived in Jasper Co in 1840. They were in Scott Co in 1850 and 1860. Ch incl Elijah; Abraham; Irene; and Pinelder. The family moved away after 1860 and has not been located.

✓ 6. Rachel (1822 MS - after 1880 MS) md Abraham Laird, an older son of her brother--in-law Jesse Laird. They were in Smith Co in 1850, but were near Soso in Jones Co in 1860. In 1880 they were back in Smith Co in Beat 2 near Bunker Hill. Ch incl Elijah William; Lilla (may be read as Silas); Calpernia; Julia Ann; Rachel Missouri; Mary M.; Joseph Slyvannus; Victoria; and Abraham.

The oral tradition is that Elijah Richardson lived for several years on Bogue Chitto River in Lawrence, Franklin, or Pike counties; then sold out and moved to the flatwoods section of Scott Co after the Choctaw Cession. Elijah and all his known ch, Jim, Susan, Phebe, Rebecca, Polly, and Rachel made the trek in ox-wagons. Most were on the Scott Co census for 1840. The last land transaction Elijah made in Lawrence Co was in 1838.

In 1850, Elijah was with his daughter and son-in-law Rachel and Abraham Laird. After 1860 he md (2) to Jerusha Ellington (1819 AL), "a niece of old man Isaac Ellington from Alabama." In 1870 this Jerusha Richardson was with William "Mack" Richardson, a grandson of Elijah in Smith Co. There were no ch from this second marriage.

Lineage is Elijah and Patsy (Guyon) of TN & MS;

Laird/Lard's of the Southeastern U.S.

This data was collected while attempting to trace the ancestry of Adam & Lucretia Laird as listed in the records of Barnwell Co., SC 1790+...Mrs. Patricia N. Edwards; 26 Robinwood Place; Purvis, MS 39475..1998.

The Laird Family (David Laird of Va.)

This family came to Augusta County, Virginia, prior to 1754. The Laird name first appears in the Augusta County records of that year. They seemed to be living then in the neighborhood of Mt. Meridian, Virginia. In 1756, David Laird bought land on Naked Creek in Augusta County. In 1760 James Laird bought 400 acres of land near the base of Laird's Knob now Rockingham County. In 1769 David Laird bought land from Edward Beard on North River. He died there in 1802. He is styled "David Laird, merchant"; and also as a captain in the Augusta militia in the Augusta records. Living on the line between Augusta and Rockingham counties, his interests and business were as much in one county as in the other. In 1764 he appears as one of the executors of Archibald Houston's estate and is called "Captain David Laird" in his will. Lieutenant Laird was wounded in the fight at Point Pleasant in 1774, and he was probably a son of David Laird. Captain David Laird commanded a company in the 10th Virginia Regiment, Continental Line, during the Revolution, and again it is uncertain whether it is the father or the son. Captain David Laird married Ann----, believed to have been the daughter of John Burton, of Henrico County, Virginia, but this is not certain. Captain David Laird died, as stated, in 1802, and his will is recorded at Staunton. He left the following children: David, James, Samuel, and Jean. James Laird married Jean Anderson, daughter of Captain Anderson of Augusta County, a soldier of the Revolution. Jean Laird married Robert Cochran, of Augusta Co., Va.

The wives of David and Samuel Laird are unknown to the writer, if they married at all. In 1803, Mrs. Ann Laird and her family removed to Jessamine County, Kentucky, and settled on land acquired by Captain David Laird in his lifetime. Later Robert Cochran and his family also moved to Kentucky and settled in what is now Shelby County in that state. In this line and also in the line of James Laird, his brother, and in the line of Mary Laird, their sister, who married James Craig of Augusta County, Virginia, Presbyterian ministers and elders have much abounded. James Laird, of Laird's Knob, married Sarah----, and they had the following children: James born in 1740, died in 1829; married Sarah King, daughter of John King, of Augusta County, Virginia. In 1806 he removed to Rockbridge County, Virginia, and settled at Loch Laird. From him descend the Laids of Rockbridge and also the Laids of Richmond, Virginia.

James Laird of Rockbridge, as he is called in his family, was a soldier in the Revolution in the militia and saw active service in the field, according to the records of Rockbridge County. David Laird, probably the second son for James Laird, Sr., married his cousin, Margaret Craig, daughter of John Craig, of Cub Run. They had the following children: Margaret, who married Henry Bushnell; James Laird, who married his cousin, Jean Craig; Mary Laird, who married Alexander Hannah.

James Laird, Jr. had two children only, daughters, Sarah, who married Phillip Thurmond, and Margaret, who married David B. Irick, of Harrisonburg. The records of Rockingham County show, in 1781, James Laird along with Alexander Herring was a collector of the specific tax in that county, but whether it was James Jr. or James Sr. is uncertain.

Laird Family of Tennessee

from: private correspondence

According to our records, John Laird Sr. of Belfast, Ireland m. Elizabeth Armstrong. Her brothers were the Armstrongs of NC who got much western land in TN. Elizabeth's children were: John Laird, Jr., James, Thomas, Martin, Samuel, Matthew, Nathan, Hannah, Elizabeth, & dau. Matthew came to America to see his brother, John Laird, who was a Rev. Patriot/soldier-but not OUR John Laird.

from: "Giles County Historical Society Bulletin" Jan. 22, 1984.

John Laird Sr. of Belfast, Ireland married Elizabeth Armstrong, sister of John and Martin Armstrong who emigrated from Ireland to Pennsylvania and thence to Stokes Co., NC. There they fought in the American Revolution, and like other North Carolina soldiers, were paid for their services in western lands.

The Armstrongs became leaders in their county. In 1783 a land office was opened in Hillsboro, NC for the sale of western land not included in the Military Reservation. John Armstrong was named to head this office and his position gave him the opportunity to acquire much land in Middle Tennessee including Giles County. John and Elizabeth Armstrong Laird had ten children, the oldest of which was John Jr. (1770-1861).

The Armstrong uncles asked their sister to send John Jr. to them in America when he reached the age of 18 years. John came to America and lived near his uncles in Stokes county near Germantown. There he earned his living for a while by teaching school. Circa 1787, he married a young widow with two daughters, Anna Maria (Mary) Dorothea Frey Tuttle. Anna Maria (1768-1846) was the daughter of Michael and Mary Dorothea Frey, Moravians, who had migrated to North Carolina and close relatives of the Freys (Frys) who had settled in Giles county in 1808 and who probably influenced the Lairds to follow them there. John and his family, consisting of his wife and seven children, moved to Giles County in 1809 and first lived on the Martin Fry farm. On July 22, 1811, John bought 328 acres of land on Lynn Creek from Thomas Temple Armstrong of Stokes County, NC. He paid $500.00 for his land, the deed transaction being witnessed by Thomas Moody and John and Henry Fry. John built a log house which he used as a barn after he completed his brick house about 1 mile north of old Lynnville (Waco) ca. 1814-house still standing and still occupied.

Laird built a mill on the main branch of Lynn Creek ca. 1811 and had the first cotton gin in this part of the county which was run by water power. He also opened a store across the road and a little north of his home and became a successful merchant, but he was mainly a farmer.

John lived to be almost 100 years old. It has been said that he looked like he was 100 but he never became helpless. For many years one of his slaves drove him to Lynnville every day to "drink the waters". John and Mary had nine children whose names are listed below. Mary died 16 December 1845. Their youngest child, Robert Henderson Laird, moved back to the family home and looked after John until his death on 27 December 1861. They, with a number of their descendants, are buried in the McLaurin Cemetery near Waco. John Laird b. Belfast, Ireland 25 Sept. 1797, d. Giles County, TN 27 Dec. 1861, bur. in McLaurine Ceme-

from: "Kings, Laids, & Related Families" DAR Library-Washington, D.C.

William Laird was born about 1792 in South Carolina. He married a young lady named Elinder. Their son Henry wrote in his Confederate Military record that he was born in Lexington District, South Carolina. The family moved from South Carolina to Alabama in the early 1830's.

The following land was bought by William Laird from the Federal Government:

20 Dec. 1834, Montgomery Co., Ala., 40.09 acres, Sect. 14, Twp 10, R.18, $50.11;

7 Nov. 1836, Butler Co., 41.25 acres, Sec. 2, Twp 10, R.18, $51.56;

7 Nov. 1836, Butler Co., 80.15 acres, Sec. 11, Twp 10, R.18, $100.19;

and Nov. 14, 1836, Butler Co., 82.50 acres, Sec. 2, Twp 10, R.18, $103.13. This land is located near Petrey, Alabama, now in Crenshaw County. William's son James wrote in his war records that he was born in Butler Co.

William Laird is listed in the 1840 census of Butler County, and in the 1850 Census of Geneva, Coffee County (later called Geneva Co.). William must have died before 1855 as he is not listed in the Alabama state 1855 census. Elinder was born about 1804 in South Carolina. Her maiden name is unknown. When her sons moved to Walton County, Florida, Elinder moved also. The family story is that Elinder was a French Huguenot. On the death certificate of her son Henry Laird, it said that Henry was of French-English descent. We have been unable to trace several of William Laird's children. The oldest son William, left Alabama about 1848 to go west. We were unable to track one son and one daughter who were born between 1825 and 1830. A family story is that one daughter married a man that the family disapproved of. The towns people put them on a raft and sent them down a river. A young girl named Martha (born about 1848 Ala.) is listed with the family in 1850 and 1860. I was told she was a grandchild. No one knows what happened to her, either.

1. William Laird

William Laird (son of Wm Laird) was born about 1819 in South Carolina. Very little is known of William. I did find that he helped his younger brother Henry kidnap his girl friend (whom he wanted to marry, and did). The young girl's father, William Long, had a warrant out for William. This all took place in 1848 Alabama, and it was at this same time that William Laird left Alabama to go west to Texas or Oklahoma. He was never heard from again.

2. Henry Laird

Henry Laird (son of Wm. Laird) was born 3 June 1821, Lexington District, South Carolina. It has been said that he was married three times. His first wife and child died during child birth. His second wife (we do not know her name) was the mother of his first two children, Julia F. and William P. Laird. He married Sarah Ann Long (born 24 April 1832, Butler Co., Ala.), on 5 Sept. 1848 in Geneva, Alabama. In 1856, after the birth of his daughter Mary Elizabeth, Henry moved his family to Glendale, Walton County, Florida. There he built his home and raised his family. He was a farmer, and he did have slaves. Some of the descendants of the ex-slaves of Henry Laird are still in the area of Euchee Valley. They took the last name of Laird. When the War Between the States started, Henry was one of the first to volunteer. He freed his slaves and gave each one land to live on. They stayed and helped Sarah with the work and children. Henry joined Capt. Henry Westley Laird's "Gulf Rangers" in Geneva, Alabama, on 14 Sept. 1861. He was taken a prisoner at the Battle of Island #10, and became very sick. When he was released, Henry had Bronchitis and asked for a discharge in Jackson, Mississippi on 6 October, 1862. In his records, Henry was described as six feet, two inches tall, dark complexion, dark eyes and black hair. He enlisted as a Private and was discharged as a 4th Sergeant. Around April of 1863, Henry re-enlisted in Captain A.C. Monroes Company "K", 6th Alabama. A friend, John Stafford, wrote on the Widow's Pension Request that he and Henry had been in the war together. Both had enlisted twice. John Stafford remembered that Henry went home on furlough to get another horse, as his horse had broken its thigh. While Henry was on furlough, the company was sent to guard Milton (an old Florida town) where the entire company was captured. This was at the close of the war.

Laird Research

Several cousins and other Laird descendants have tried to trace the Laird ancestors, all coming up with the same story. Lairds in the early days spelled it LAIRD, LARD, LEAIRD, and LEARD. An interesting fact on our LAIRDS was that in the 1850 census of Coffee County, Alabama, our William and Henry were listed as LEAIRD. In Barbour County, Louis LEAIRD was listed with his children. In 1848, Mr. William Long had a warrant out for the arrest of William LEAIRD, and his daughter Sarah Ann Long married Henry LEAIRD. I have no proof, but I believe our William Laird was the brother of Louis Laird of Barbour County, and Henry Wesley Laird of Geneva, Alabama. Henry Wesley Laird was written up in the "Alabama Dictionary of Biography". It said he was orphaned at a young age and came from the home of an elder brother in South Carolina, to the home of another brother, Louis Laird of Eufaula. At the beginning of the War Between the States, Captain Henry Wesley Laird formed the "Gulf Rangers" in Geneva with members of his family. Lt. James Laird (son of Wm.) was living in Geneva at this time, and Henry (son of Wm.) who was in Walton County, Florida, came up to join. Lt. Louis Jefferson and Andrew Jackson Laird (sons of Louis) also joined. Why would our Henry join a company in Geneva, and not the company from DeFuniak with his friends and neighbors, unless the company he joined was linked by blood kin?

Lairds in the War Between the States

As previously stated, Captain Henry Wesley Laird formed the "Gulf Rangers" in Geneva, Alabama, on 14 September, 1861. After mustering in Montgomery, Alabama, they all fought together, and were captured together at Island #10 in Tennessee, in April, 1862. They were all Prisoners of War at Camp Randall, Madison, Wisconsin, and Camp Douglas, Chicago, Illinois. When they were released/exchanged, they were all very sick, and asked to be discharged (Oct. 1862). Just as soon as they were well again, however, nearly everyone re-enlisted in another Company. 1950 for

Mrs. J.E. O'Donnell of Baton Rouge

1. This data has been compiled from the South Carolina State Archives on Laird as found in Columbia...This paper will later be supplimented by various county records and the extra pages will be added...The margin numbers are for cross reference and f or the use of Mrs. O'Donnell in writing to me about certain items.
2. The surname is usually spelled as LAIRD today but formerly it had several spellings as shown by the records in Columbia. LAIRD LARD LEARD...Those who settled in Chester-Fairfield area spelled as Laird...while those in Abbeville-Laurens area spell ed as Leard...Those who settled in the Barnwell-Orangeburg-Lexington area spelled as Lard...In time all the SC branchestook the present day spelling of LAIRD.
3. This paper is to attempt to find the ancestors of Absolum Lard whose daughter, Alpha Lard married near Blackville, SC to John Babers as his second wife died in 1864... The son of Alpha Laird and John Babers was Darling Babers who settled in Wilkinson Co., MS. and he is the father of Lenore Babers who married J.E. O'Donnell of Baton Rough, La.
4. John Babers born in 1794 and died in 1864...He was reared an orphan and came to SC from Va. and settled near Blackville, SC...He married first to Martha Elkins, a daughter of Drury and Williford Elkins and by his first wife he had ten children...Upon the death of his first wife, Martha Elkins Babers, John Babers wed a second time to Miss Alpha Laird/Lard...She was a daughter of Susan Black (It is thought she was a Black) and Absalom Lard of Barnwell Co., SC.
5. Alpha Lard was born in 1806 and died in 1857 and was married to John Babers ca1836 and by him she had six children...They left their home near Blackville, SC sometime between 1848 and 1850 to remove to Bienville Parish, La.
6. From the book MEMOIRS OF MS...In this book is published a sketch of Darling Babers, the son of Alpha Lard and John Babers #5...When this was published, Darling Babers was a resident of Wilkinson Co., MS which is about 60 miles from Bienville Parish, La...Darling Babers in his sketch of himself wrote..."My grandfather, Absalom Lard was born in 1739 and died in 1846 aged 107 years old...Absalom Lard was a soldier in the Revolution."
- 6a...Mrs. O'Donnell does not think this data entirely correct...

7. I am taking the liberty of showing this paper on Laird to Mrs. Ernest M. Hinson of Columbia who was nee Myrtle Laird of Pelion, SC which is in the Blackville area...Mrs. Hinson and her sister Freddie Laird McCullom both reside in Columbia...know both of them and they are very charming ladies...I do not know whether they have any data on their Laird family which goes very far back or not nor do I know whether either of them are members of the DAR...Mrs. Hinson and her sister may be able to tell me some data on the family and they may also know where the older members of the Laird family are buried...Later on, in case they have any data, I will type it in as further pages and items on this paper.

DATA

8. SC Council Journal 27 Feb. 1797...Lately arrived from Ireland these immigrants: Samuel Leard and allowed 300a land...Margaret Laird aged 36...John Laird aged 6...Mary Laird aged 4...Samuel Laird, Jr. aged 2...James Shanks aged 3. Matthew Shanks and allowed 150a land. The land was allowed according to the size of the family...100a for the head of the house and 50a allowed for a wife and then 50a allowed for each child under age 16...Note the head of the house was spelled Leard while his wife and children were Laird...I suspect the Matthew Shanks was a widower and a brother of Mrs. Margaret Laird for she had charge of his small son, James Shanks aged 3...This family settled in the Abbeville county area.

9. In Colonial times, SC had four counties and Charleston was the county seat of all of them and for SC records from 1670 to 1782/85 one has to go to Charleston...These four counties extended from the Atlantic Ocean all the way across the state to the NC line...Granville Co. followed up the Savannah River from Beaufort to NC...Colleton Co. followed along the west side of Granville. Berkeley Co. began at Charleston and followed up to NC. Its eastern border being the Santee and Broad rivers...Craven was the last Co. and was north of the Santee River and east of Broad...However, when the state was being formed the up-country lines were indefinite and often lands as listed in Craven would be in Berkeley...The counties of Orangeburg, Lexington, Barnwell, Calhoun, and parts of Aiken and Allendale were in what was called Orangeburg District and the Colonial counties of Granville, Colleton, and Berkeley each crossed old Orangeburg District...Barnwell Co. was first called Winton Co. and Lexington Co. was first called Saxe-Gotha Co.

10. Lands granted by the King:

Robert Lard, 150a in Craven Co. 19 Aug. 1774.

James Lardant, 1 Lot in Charleston 9 May 1694.

11. Land Memorials...Each owner of an original Royal land grant had to travel to Charleston (or send by a neighbor) and make a Tax Return on the land, even if he had inherited the original grant or bought it from the original owner. He had to make the memorial tax return...I did not abstract any of the Memorials that had bought or inherited some lands for they made memorials.

David Laird...returns on 3 grants.

John Laird...returns on 2 grants.

Ludwick Lard...returns on 1 grant.

Joseph Lard...returns on 1 grant.

Robert Lard...returns on 1 grant.

These memorials can be abstracted for the data in them...

James Lard...All papers missing from the file...He was paid however by an Indent for his service and the Indent was endorsed by Benjamin Rainy and by Thomas Blassingame...He was evidently in either Union or York Co. for that is where Blassingame and Rainy resided. 54b. After we left Barnwell we drove to the home of Miss Mary Louise Ash, RFD Martin, SC for my fiend wanted to interview this aged lady on her Baughman-Ash-Ladson lines... Miss Ash lives in the house where she was born and her nephew, Mr. Norman Drummond lives with her...She is very active and spry for a lady nearing 80 years and has a fine knowledge of families in her area of Barnwell...Some of her Baughman family lived on Joyce Branch and were members of the very ancient Joyce Branch Baptist Church.

54c. My friend Jack E. Landson, Jr. and I drove up to old Joyce Branch Baptist Church which is in that area which is to be taken into the A-Bomb area...We lost our road and got to old Joyce Branch Church too late to read any stones for it was then dark. We were told that the old church and cemetery is to be removed by the U.S. Gov't...Some of the Barnwell DAR are trying to copy all tombstones and as many unmarked graves as they can in the A-Bomb area before it is closed to the public.

71. I am sure that by careful study of associated families of Lard and Babers-that more data might be obtained..We were on our way to Sylvania, Ga. after we had worked in Barnwell, when we stopped to see Mrs. Langley who was on a visit to her sister... Mr. Ladson had had Mrs. Langley doing some Barnwell work on his lines and she was not at her home in Barnwell but at the home of a sister where she was spending the day...Mrs. Langley told us of the Alpha Peacock and said that Peacock and Lard were rel ated...Miss Mary Louise Ash also told us the same thing and said she was sure that Susan, the wife of Absalom Lard was a Miss Cave or else closely related to them. If I had heard all of this Peacock-Cave data, I would have checked the many Peacock-Cave items in Barnwell...Somebody told us that Absalom Lard was a son of Thomas Lard...Others told us he was a brother of Adam Lard...Nobody had proof...It will take a person a full week and with care, to do full justice in Barnwell to Lard....He will have to visit old Churches and talk with old people...In some ways the Lee family figure in with both Lard and Baber in Barnwell, it seemed to me...Also Caves with Baber it seemed in Barnwell and the together in Rutherford Co., NC...People usually migrated in company.

Dear Mrs Edwards,

I should like to express my appreciation for your kind response to my query in the "FAMILY PUZZLER" , and also the information you sent. It is my assumption that Josiah and Thomas came to the Mississippi Territory together. This is based on the fact that on 2 April 1810, Georgia passports through the Creek nation were approved for Thomas and Josiah Lard. The document indicated that they were from the Barnwell District. it is my belief that they were lured by the free land available in the Mississippi Territory after the Choctaw cession of 1801.

The Spanish census of the Natchez District in 1793 lists a Ricardo (Richard) Lord on Bayou Pierre. He is not listed in the 1800 census and there is no evidence to link him to Thomas or Josiah. The 1810 census of Amite Co., Miss. shows Thoams and Josiah located there.

I will keep you posted if I can push back any further than the Barnwell Co., S.C. records. I am also enclosing a chart for you to keep which shows the descendaNTS OF Josiah Lard (my great-great-great grandfather. By the way, I also found a record of a John Lard paying taxes in the Louisiana Territory in 1810; however, no conncection has been established to date.

It has akways been my assumption that Thomas and Josiah Lard were brothers or cousins, with the cousin relationship most probable. Thomas Lard will was dated 3 September 1831 (Amite Co., Miss.) and indicated that one child, Ephraim was deceased. Other children listed were Gideon, Henry and John. Josiah (Joseph) Lard was listed as surety. John Lard has a will dated 30 March 1833 showing him deceased. Josiah is listed as a cousin. However, this may refer to Josiah Sr.'s son Josiah. Gideon's will; shows him deceased as of 1 May 1838.

I reiterate my thanks and will keep in touch.

The best always,

Reading This Book

If, while reading the following pages of this book, the reader will keep these few facts in mind, a much clearer understanding of the contents will result. The format or style used in this book is known as the Modified Register System, which has been refined by the National Genealogical Society.

Three types of numbers are used: one to uniquely identify the individual, one to indicate the generation into which that person falls, and one to denote his or her birth-order within the nuclear family. The identification numbering system used in this book is called By Generation. The starting person is 1, his first child is 2. All the children are listed as generation number two, the grand-children are listed as generation number three and so on. Each person is assigned an ID number in sequential order by generation.

When an individual is introduced in his/her separate sketch, the name appears in boldface letters with the surnames in all capital letters. The name is preceded by the identification number. The last given name is followed immediately by a superscript number indicating the number of generations from the starting individual in this book. Next, the PAF RIN number is printed in curly brackets. Next, the PAF ID field is printed in square brackets. In parentheses following the name is a list of direct ancestors back to the starting individual. Only the given name is listed, preceded by his/her ID number, and followed by the generation number in superscript.

When the list of children is presented, the plus (+) sign indicates that more about this child will be presented in his/her separate sketch. The ID number is printed, followed by M/F indicating the sex. Next a small roman numeral in front of the name designates birth-order. Next the name is followed by the birth and death dates.

The index is arranged alphabetically by surname. Under each surname, the given names are alphabetically arranged. The name is followed by the year of birth and death in square brackets. The number to the right indicates the page where this name appears.
